MUSEU DO CHIADO

MUSEU DO CHIADO

Museu Nacional de Arte Contemporânea Museu do Chiado

PRESENTATION

Located in the centre of Lisbon, in the historical district of Chiado, the National Museum of Contemporary Art – Museum of Chiado has been housed in a part of the former Convento de São Francisco since 1911. The Museum's collection covers the history of art in Portugal from 1850 to the present day, representing the most important collection of Portuguese contemporary art. The Museum gives special attention to temporary exhibitions centred on retrospectives of prominent artists or movements at a national level, namely exhibiting the works of artists such as Paula Rego, Helena Almeida, Julião Sarmento, Pedro Cabrita Reis and Ângela Ferreira, amongst others
